

6516205451.txt

when the NAB pays for my personal subscription to XM, they can mandate how and what kind of programming XM should have.
Until then, they should stop trying to monopolize the airwaves.